VISUAL ARTS
MISSISSAUGA
at RIVERWOOD

Support the Arts. Strengthen Community. Join the VAM Board.

Visual Arts Mississauga (VAM) is seeking volunteer Board Directors who are passionate about community impact and can help guide our next stage of growth. We are particularly interested in individuals with experience in:

- Fundraising and donor development
- Marketing, communications, and brand growth
- Operations, systems improvement, and automation
- Strategic planning and organizational growth

For almost 50 years, VAM has engaged thousands of participants annually through arts education, exhibitions, outreach programs, and community partnerships. From children and youth to emerging artists, seniors, and underserved communities, we believe creativity builds stronger, more connected communities.

VAM is entering an exciting period of growth. We are expanding community programming, strengthening partnerships, investing in digital systems and organizational capacity, and developing new opportunities for artists and creative engagement across the city.

What You'll Do

As a Board Director, you will:

- Provide strategic oversight and governance (monthly)
- Help strengthen VAM's financial sustainability
- Support fundraising and community-building initiatives
- Serve as an ambassador for the organization
- Attend monthly Board meetings and the Annual General Meeting
- Commit to a three-year term
